Incident Summary: Victim was walking his dog in the courtyard of his apartment complex when he was approached by two male white suspects who began demanding money. The victim replied that he did not have any money. The suspect then displayed a small black handgun and pointed it at the victim and again demanded his money. The victim grabbed the gun and the two began to fight over it. The gun then went off, striking the victim in the left hand. The suspects then fled on foot from the area without getting any property from the victim. The victim then drove himself to Doctors West Hospital, where he was treated for a minor gunshot wound to the left hand. There was no scene located and no Shot Spotter information reported.
